One Thousand and One Olive Trees Stories and Songs from Occupied Palestine Tuesday 10 October from 7.15pm At the MacFarlane Hall, Peebles

San Ghanny Choir (meaning "We shall sing") will share songs and stories from their recent journey to Palestine, portraying people's every day lives under occupation. They will tell stories of "samoud" (steadfastness) which encapsulate the dignity with which Palestinians live their lives and resist injustice.

Call In

The group meet up on the first Monday of the month for social interaction, sharing ideas and making new friends over a cuppa. However there will be no Call In on 2 October because we hope as many parishioners as possible will support the Borders Union of the Sick Mass at 2pm on Saturday 30 September and join them for refreshments and a chat in the Neighbourhood Centre afterwards.

Save the Date

The Annual Memorial Service for our whole parish to remember all their loved ones who have gone before us will be on Sunday 5 November at 2.00pm.
