Centenary of the 1918 Education Act / Halyrude Primary School

In 2018 we reached the centenary of the 1918 Education Act. This was the Act that saw Catholic schools transfer from Diocesan control to State governance. The Bishops' Conference planned to use this centenary to celebrate the positive impact that this very important partnership between Church and State has had for Scotland. Diocese, schools, parishes and local communities have been marking this special year in a variety of ways.

Just before the October holiday, here at St Joseph's, Peebles, a group of parishioners invited the pupils of Halyrude School along to the original St Joseph's School building next to the church to learn about the history of Halyrude / St Josephs from 1865 until the present day. The children were shown a power point of pictures from the past, took part in workshops, dressed up, sampled Drill and played games outside. (Pictures can be viewed on Halyrude School Facebook page).

Annual Parish Memorial Mass

The Memorial Mass in St Joseph's on Sunday 4th November was well attended, and The Bereavement Team was delighted with all the support received from the parish.

Many thanks to those who donated cakes and biscuits and came on the day to set up, serve refreshments and clear up the hall.

The extra biscuits will be used at Sunday teas and the Christmas teas in December.

The Mass for the Dead in St James's parish will be held on Sunday 18 November 2018 at 2pm.
